—Convocation Address

significant role, viz, divine and parents' blessings, student's hard work and faculty members true nurturing the student. He was of the opinion, "Today, Mr. Jino Samuel Varghese is showing path to our students to secure ranks in future". He had to recall his student days that at the age of 24 he was crowned with the doctorate degree; also talked of other luminaries who became famous blossoming themselves from the beginning. Most interestingly, the two first rank holders of the Institution have risen to the occasion with their rare humble quality and being simple; they put their hard work intelligently and strategically to bring laurels to them, their family and the Institution, so the present ones should tread the path shown by Ms Astha (2014 first rank holder) and Mr. Jino and plan their academic journey. Mr. V Nagaraj, Vice Chairman, Sambhram Group of Institutions felicitated the Proud Alumnus-cum-Rank Holder, Mr. Jino Samuel Varghese.

In his acceptance speech, Mr. Jino said that he would like to thank the Almighty for His choicest blessings on him. Further, he opined that his hard work is also responsible for this honor. He termed the day as memorable day in his life and exhorted his juniors in B-School to dream big so that they too can stand proudly on the stage in the following year. He also appealed the students to utilize the opportunities available in his Alma Mater and urged them to make use of the faculty resource in the best possible way. He asked the students not to think of their limitations and not to go on complaining which does not serve any purpose. The best way is to work hard and let the work talk. He said that this is the outcome of genuine academic guidance of all faculties including the Director; he never minced words to place on record the support and guidance of all concerned including the Management of Sambhram Group of Institutions.

Mr. V Nagaraj congratulated Mr. Jino for his rare feat in course of his address and said that the main force behind all this was Dr. K C Mishra. He further said that getting ranks consecutively for two years is not a small thing and acknowledged that it was the combined effort of the students, faculty members, Director, parents, Management and all other staff members. He further stated that we should not expect anything in life, simply we should continue to work, and success automatically will follow us. More and more Colleges are coming up whereas only a few corporate recruiters are there to facilitate their placement, so lot of competition is in the card for students, he said. He further added that scoring highest

Felicitations Ceremony at Sambhram School of Management

A Felicitations Ceremony was recently organized by Sambhram School of Management, Bengaluru (Karnataka). Mr. Jino Samuel Varghese, Student of B-School, Bangalore University during 2013-2105 batch got first rank in University in MBA-2015. Director, Prof. K C Mishra, after his Welcome Speech said that such an honor successively in 2014 and 2015 (first and fifth ranks in 2014 and first rank in 2015) did not happen as usual rather with the conscious efforts of both students and faculties in nurturing the winner. Further, he said that three important things play marks is not the only destination but one should indulge in social work and then only one could become a socially responsible business citizen in the society and develop responsible businesses. There was debates on achieving glory by the worthy and only foolish achieve success; success is always at the low ebb and glory at the zenith for the worthy. In the annals of the B-School February 28, 2016 and April 26, 2016 were the days when twice rank holders have been honored in the presence of galaxy of academicians and the budding managers. He compared the role of teacher with that of doctors and mentioned in his address that it will not be a surprise if our student gets rank this year also moving for a hat trick. Regarding Mr. Jino, the guest told that he made everyone proud and said that he has inspired all other students; also Mr. Jino's simplicity and humility made him to achieve this rare distinction which was not the end but beginning of a long odyssey. This type of honor does not come to the student of any College so definitely Sambhram has achieved a commanding height among the fraternity of B-Schools. The Ceremony ended with a Vote of Thanks by Mr. J B Janardana, Associate Professor of the Institution.
